

Repairing Environments

Post-Disaster Mobilisations, Experiences and Tensions

Organizers : Laura Centemeri & Sezin Topçu – IMM CEMS
Contact : laura.centemeri@ehess.fr; sezin.topcu@ehess.fr

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP École normale supérieure Campus Jourdan 48 bd Jourdan 75014 Paris – Salle R2-02 FREE ENTRY

Repairing Environments

PROGRAM

Post-Disaster Mobilisations, Experiences and Tensions

9:00 - 9:15

Welcoming of the participants

9:15 - 9:30

Opening speech by Peter Burgess, ENS

9:30 - 10:00

Introduction by Laura Centemeri & Sezin Topçu, IMM-CEMS

10:00 - 12:00

SESSION 1

Chair: Sezin Topçu, CEMS-CNRS

Mary Mitchell, Purdue University (USA)

The Cosmology of Evidence: Citizenship, Law and Biological Knowledge after Three Mile Island

Paul Jobin & Yi-Ying Tsai, Academia Sinica (Taiwan)

How much compensation is fair enough for repairing a toxic environment? A view from two class actions in Taiwan

Janine Barbot, CEMS-Inserm & Nicolas Dodier, CEMS-Ehess (France)

Repairing damages and faults at the intersection of different judicial procedures: the case of a public health disaster

12:00 - 13:00

Lunch break

13:00 - 15:00

SESSION 2

Chair: Peter Burgess, ENS

Lorenzo Natali, University of Milan-Bicocca (Italy)

Exploring the socio-cultural dimensions of environmental victimization from a green criminological perspective

Sandrine Revet, CERI-SciencesPo (France)

Making the disaster's scene speak. Court transportation during the Xynthia trial, France

Betty Queffelec, Université de Bretagne-Occidentale (France)

Compensating for biodiversity destruction – which coherence behind the legal framework?

15:00 - 15:30

Coffee break

15:30 - 17:30

SESSION 3

Chair: Laura Centemeri, CEMS-CNRS

Francis Chateauraynaud & Josquin Debaz, GSPR-Ehess (France)

Dam, Damage and Damnation. The consequences of the social and ecological disaster of Mariana, Brazil

Santiago Gorostiza, Autonomous University of Barcelona (Spain) & Marco Armiero, KTH Stockholm (Sweden)

Memory and reparation after dam failures. The case of Ribadelago, Spain (1959) and Vajont, Italy (1963)

Yoann Moreau, Mines-ParisTech (France)/Resarch Institute for Humanity and Nature (Japan)
To remedy. How can a world be repaired?

17:30 - 18:00

Conclusion