

BLACK

REPRODUCTIVE

International Conference

BLACK

REPRODUCTIVE

HEALTH AND RIGHTS

Friday
16 June 2023
9h30 - 18h

HEALTH AND RIGHTS

A global discussion

Salle 0.015, Bâtiment de Recherche Sud
Campus Condorcet, Cours des Humanités, Aubervilliers, France

L'ÉCOLE
DES HAUTES
ÉTUDES EN
SCIENCES
SOCIALES

Cems
Centre d'études et de recherche en sciences
sociales

Institut CONVERGENCES
MIGRATIONS

This event has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement N° 892684

PROGRAMME

9H30

Introduction — Chiara Quagliariello ('Marie Curie' Research Fellow, EHES)

10H — 10H30

Key-Note Lecture — Dána-Ain Davis (City University of New York)

10H45 — 12H30

Section 1 — Maternal health disparities in African diasporas

- ◆ Alana Helberg-Proctor (University of Amsterdam): 'Racializing perinatal risk in the Netherlands'
- ◆ Catarina Barata (University of Lisbon): '«Body Broken in Half». Perceptions and representations of Afro Brazilian migrants' experiences of obstetric violence and racism in Portugal'
- ◆ Priscille Sauvegrain (Sorbonne University): 'Could differential care and implicit caregiver biases explain maternal health inequalities between migrant and native women, in France'
- ◆ Caroline Bazambanza (London School of Economics): 'What it means to 'fail', and how to 'progress'

Discussant: Discussant: Chiara Quagliariello (Cems, Ehess)

12H30 — 13H45

Lunch break

13H45 — 15H30

Section 2 — Reproductive Justice and Black maternal health

- ◆ Princess Banda (University of Oxford): Exploring the (Necro)Politics of Obstetric Racism and Racially Stratified Obstetric Violence in Britain: An Introductory Analysis of Key Concepts.

- ◆ Zakia Ahmed (Independent Researcher): Reproductive health in Mayotte: obstetrical neglect and traditional knowledge
- ◆ Patricia Hamilton (University of York): «We do this too»: Alternative futures of black motherhood.
- ◆ Alice Larotonda (Independent Researcher): 'Tracing invisible historical legacies in human milk donation: Does race matter in postpartum care in Cabo Verde?'

Discussant: Tanay Lynn Harris (Director of The Bloom Collective, Baltimore)

15H30 — 16H

Coffee Break

16H — 17H30

Section 3 — Decolonizing reproductive rights

- ◆ Emanuelle Góes (Cidacs/Fiocruz, Bahia, Brazil; Ubuntu Center, Drexel University, EUA): 'Racism, Abortion and Black Women, an Intersectional Perspective'
- ◆ Tessa Moll (University of Witwatersrand, South Africa): Debility and ARTs in Africa: toward a political ecology of infertility
- ◆ Trudie Gerrits & Andrea Whittaker (University of Amsterdam & Monash University, Australia): 'Equitable access or perpetuating treatment inequalities? Debates over low cost IVF interventions in Southern Africa.'

Discussant: Mounia El Kotni (Cermes3)

17H30 — 18H

Conclusions

